

Electrical Engineer Job Vacancy

Job Purpose:

The Engineer will be required to electrical fault find, repair and carry out installations.

Candidate Expectations:

- Experience in the Maintenance, Repair and Installation.
- Previous working experience as a competent Mechanical and Electrical Engineer in the service industry.
- Strong independent problem-solving ability.
- Fault find and determine the causes of equipment, component and system failures.
- Full UK driving licence
- Able to work at heights

Duties:

- Install, repair & maintain electrical & mechanical lifting equipment.
- Inspecting electrical systems & equipment for damage, malfunctions and safety hazards.
- Fault finding & diagnostics.
- Working on installations alongside others & independently.
- Complete necessary paperwork in line with the companies set procedures.
- Adhering to quality, health, safety & environment regulations.
- In order to succeed in this role it is expected that you will have good problem solving and practical thinking skills to ensure the safe and effective operation, maintenance and repair of all equipment.

Schedule:

- Monday to Friday*

*occasional Saturday or Sunday may be asked to work if a customer requested.

Work Location: On the road & on premises

Qualifications required: Electrical

Qualifications preferred otherwise will be required to gain once employed:

- Forklift Licence
- LEEA
- IPAF

Apply now!

Send your CV to simon@ablelifting.co.uk